Paediatric palliative care is a specialized approach focused on enhancing the quality of life for children with serious illnesses and their families. It addresses physical, emotional, social, and spiritual needs through symptom management and psychosocial support. This special feature to be published on National Children’s Hospice Palliative Care Day and produced in conjunction with Canadian Hospice Palliative Care Association, will spotlight the invaluable contributions of healthcare professionals, caregivers, volunteers, and organizations working tirelessly to meet the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of these children and their families.

Proposed topic highlights:

IMPACT — Highlighting the positive influence of palliative care on children and families, showcasing its transformative effects on well-being.

SUPPORT — Exploring diverse support systems for families in paediatric palliative care, offering emotional and practical assistance.

EMPOWERMENT — Supporting informed decision-making by children and families, fostering autonomy in care choices.

ADVOCACY & ACCESS — Advocating for policies and organizations improving access to paediatric palliative care services.

INNOVATION — Spotlighting research and innovative approaches to enhance outcomes, symptom management, and quality of life for children and families.
